SOLUTIONS FOR THE CONSIGNEE

Other services facilitating the delivery of shipments

COLLECTION AT A DHL SERVICEPOINT AND DHL LOCKER

The consignee locates the nearest DHL ServicePoint and collects the shipment on their way home from work.

- An online shop customer is able to choose the best place and time to collect their shipment (for some locations also on Saturdays and Sundays).
- The consignee receives notification that the shipment is ready for pick-up.
- The shipment can be collected within 2 calendar days of the notification, at any time during the location's business hours.

REDIRECT PARCEL

As soon as the shipment is generated by the Sender, consignees can redirect their shipments at przekieruj.dhlecommerce.pl.

Without having to get in touch with the sender, the consignee can decide on the most convenient way to redirect the parcel by:

- scheduling the shipment for pick-up at a selected DHL ServicePoint or DHL Locker (pick-up within 2 calendar days, counting from the day following delivery to the location),
- changing the date or address of delivery of a shipment

The consignee can also use the Redirect parcel service to cancel the shipment (stating the reason for the cancellation).

The consignee is notified that he/she may redirect the shipment through the Email/SMS notification service, the Pre-Delivery Information (PDI) service, and when checking the status at dhlecommerce.pl.

A mobile-friendly version of the przekieruj.dhlecommerce.pl website is also available.

EMAIL/SMS NOTIFICATIONS

Free notifications keep the consignee informed about the estimated time of delivery of their shipment. They allow him/her to learn about the DHL courier's unsuccessful attempt to deliver their shipment and to easily redirect the shipment at przekieruj.dhlecommerce.pl.

- Email and SMS notifications inform the consignee that the item has shipped, provide the estimated date of delivery and notify them about any unsuccessful attempts to deliver.
- Knowing the approximate time of delivery of the shipment can help the consignee plan their day more effectively.
- Notifications eliminate the need to contact the online store about shipments.

RETURNS

Ability to ship returns free-of-charge is a crucial argument for the online buyers. They tend to choose offers of the sellers who allow returns at their own expense.

DHL eCommerce offers variety of forms of submitting return labels and shipping returns on both domestic and European markets.

Receivers in Poland can use www.dhl24.com.pl/zwroty portal to submit returns. After inputting the received return label's number, one can check:

- available return shipment options,
- location of the nearest DHL eCommerce point to send a return shipment,
- guide to order a courier online, if the seller provided such an option.

Receivers from abroad use the return manual. It contains the necessary information on how to make a return.
